

Dining Hall Problem Statement

Problem Statement:

- USC Students need a better way to tell when Dining Hall sections close and open. Not just when the door to the building closes, but when the individual sections inside the building close.

Who is experiencing the problem?

- Any student with a meal plan, which is all freshman and most students, has likely experienced this problem. It affects anyone who doesn't have the hours of each memorized.